

Exodus 6:6-8

Redemption / rescue	Revealing	Relationship / (rest)
Israel enslaved	God reminding them of who he is	Land as a possession
God redeems with outstretched arm	'I am the Lord'	God keeps his promises
Mighty acts of judgement	'Then you will know'	'Take you as my own people'
		'I will be your God'

Chapters 1-2	Chs 3-5	Chs 6-11	Chs 12-15	Chs 16-18
God overrules Pharaoh	God calls Moses; God is patient	God is powerful	God's acts are to be remembered	God provides
God mocks Pharaoh	God works through flawed people	God is the most powerful	What God says will happen	God is patient with grumbling, ungrateful, forgetful people
God will keep his promises	God provides everything that's needed	God makes distinctions; He cares for his own	God should be reverently feared	God's provision is sufficient / he provides just what is needed
	God calls people to trust in who he is	God requires listening / obedience	God can be trusted even when things look bad / impossible	God is for everyone and anyone can come and worship
	God gives signs	God is to be feared	God deserves the glory / praise	God is present with his people
	God provides the people required		God judges & God rescues	God protects
	God reveals his name <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Uniqueness - Personal 		God provides a way for judgment to be avoided	